World Book Day 2022 was a huge success

The Red Tree
By Shaun Tan

Sometimes the day starts with nothing to look forward to
 When your locked in misery and there is no escape
 A storm hovers over you and makes you miserable
 You're blinded by inky clouds and rainstorms
 You're lost in a tunnel of shame
 Bad days follow you
 All your happiness is ripped out of you
 No one listens the world is a deaf machine
 Joy disintegrates
 But after every storm there is happiness
 When you're locked in a box of misery there is always a key
 There is always something hiding inside you
 It is called Hope.

WELL DONE!

PIC-COLLAGES

We had a visit from Averil O'Brien - author of All Around The World with Mitchy monkey.
 "Mitchy Titch loves yoga, he does it everyday. The stretches are so good for him. They really help him play"
 A beautifully illustrated book, taking Mitchy and his friends on a trip around the world practicing yoga poses to help build confidence and inner strength.

All of KS1 had a very enjoyable trip to St Helens Theatre Royal to watch 'The Tiger Who Came to Tea. What a great experience for them!

The staff enjoy World Book Day too

Year 5 prepared a Collective Worship and prayed for the people of Ukraine.

Many of the children took part in 'Bikeability' this week

St John Fisher Choir

Well done to the choir who performed so well at the concert at the Brindley on Tuesday evening.

They enjoyed being able to sing together once again in public and apparently the audience enjoyed it too as we received lots of lovely comments.
